2010 IIDA Southwest Chapter P.R.I.D.E. AWARDS
CALL FOR ENTRIES

HOW TO ENTER

The PRIDE Awards honor design excellence within the Southwest Chapter, including Arizona, New Mexico, and Nevada. Awards will be announced the evening of the PRIDE Awards event on May 27th, 2010 at The Compound.

HOW TO ENTER:

A. Entry Requirements:

In an attempt to be environmetally sensitive we are requesting all information to be electronic. Please include the following on a CD.

1. An electronic version of the entry form and project info (as stated below) in Word and PDF must be submitted for each project. The form must be fully completed or it will be disqualified.

2. Include up to four project photos as four seperate files. Files should be in JPEG format, not to exceed 1 MB.

3. Include floor plans in JPEG format. Please remove all titleblocks and firm names.

4. Only IIDA members may submit a project, including professional, associate, student, or pending members. If your membership is pending please include a copy of your application.

5. Previously awarded projects may not be submitted, however non winning projects may be re-submitted.

6. Please include following information in PowerPoint format :

   Slide 1: Project title slide - include the project name, location (city, state), date of completion, square footage, and project category.

   Slide 2: Entry Form

   Slide 3: Project description (60 words or less)

   Slide 4: Project photo (this image will be published if the project should receive an award)

   Slide 5: Project photo

   Slide 6: Project photo

   Slide 7: Project photo

   Slide 8: Floor plan
   If you have more than one floor plan you may add additional slides.

   Use a black background for each slide. All text should be Arial font 24 pt. Text should be centered horizontally and vertically. Do not add any additional graphics. See attached template.

   Remove all title blocks, logos, and firm names from all images. Failure to do so could result in disqualification.

7. Submittals are to be packaged in an envelope with the name of the firm and all award categories labeled on the front and on the CD.